FUTURE TENSE “WILL”

We use will future to...

1. ...make promises
2. ...talk about snap decisions
3. ...offer something
4. ...make predictions about future without a physical evidence

Will is a helping verb, and we use VERB infinitive after WILL; it doesn't matter the subject is singular or plural.

We use “will not” or “won't” to make will future negative.

EX: I will help you with your homework.

My parents will buy me that bike; they promised me.
