WEEK 7

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

A. Read the sentences.

Whose hat is that? / Whose is that hat?

It's the girl's hat.

It is her hat.

Whose room is it?

It is the boys' room.

It is their room.

B. We use whose to ask questions about possession:

Pattern A		Pattern B
Whose coat is this?	or	Whose is this coat?
Whose book is that?	or	Whose is that book?
Whose pens are those?	or	Whose are those pens?
Whose bags are those?	or	Whose are those bags?

We add 's to singular nouns to show possession:

We are having a party at John's house.

Michael drove his friend's car.

We add ' to plural nouns ending in -s:

This is my parents' house.

Those are ladies' shoes.

But we use 's with irregular plural nouns such as men, women, children, people

These are men's shoes.

Children's clothes are very expensive.

Important Note:

Be careful not to confuse whose and who's (= who is). They are pronounced in the same way but spelled differently:

Whose coat is this?

Who's (= Who is) Stefan?
