THE LONG- DISTANCE TEACHER

Mr. Frank Garret, 65 is a schoolteacher. He is English but he lives in France, in the Normandy village of Yerville. Mr. Garret lives in France, but he works in England.

Every Monday he leaves home at 2:30 in the morning and drives 101 miles from his village to Boulogne. He leaves his car there and catches the ferry to Folkestone. Then he catches the train to Maidstone in Kent and he arrives at Manor School at 8.25. He teaches French from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and then leaves school. He arrives home at 9:30 in the evening. The journey there and back takes twelve hours and costs only $16!

Fortunately, Mr. Garret works in England only one day a week. And what does he do on the other days? He teaches English! He has a class of eighteen French students in Yerville and he loves them. 'Yes on Tuesdays I'm tired,' he says,' but I love my job in England and I love my home in France. I'm a happy man!'
